

Tartar Teen Talk

By Pam Anderson

With "Moonlight and Roses" playing softly in the background, Kenny Roberts and Cara Armstrong will be crowned king and queen of the 1968 Senior Prom to be held at the Airport Marina May 18.

Other members of the royal court were announced Friday night at the senior class sock-hop. They are Patsy Lander-ville and Kenny Waters, Judy Engstrom and Steve Turner, Renae Johnson and Jim Crew, and Barbara Brentwood and Mike Belzer.

This will be the first of many events to take place later in the semester for the class of '68.

THE INDIANS are coming! The Indians are coming! This will be the lucky hosts to some 250 Papago Indians during Easter vacation. These underprivileged boys and girls from 12 to 18 years of age will get a first hand look at the modern society. It will be the first trip off the reservation for them. During their stay in Torrance they will visit the two Los Angeles museums, the Griffith Park Zoo, the Los Angeles Observatory, and the beach.

Students are being urged to sign up in the activities office to take an active part in this program. By signing up, students may take an Indian boy or girl home to dinner or on a tour of the school. Also to familiarize the student body with these guests, a contest is being held. Six prizes of $25 bonds will be awarded to students submitting the best entries. Categories are not strictly prescribed so let your imagination be your guide. A theme or slogan would give the contest a real kickoff. All projects, essays, posters, editorials, arts and craft projects should be turned in to the activities office by Monday.

CONGRATULATIONS to those seniors who will have their names entered in the 1968 edition of the "Who's Who in American High Schools." Seniors are picked on the basis of their activity, athletic, or academic ability. Less than 5 per cent of all high school seniors in the nation receive this award.

'Meet the Candidates' Session Slated April 3

All candidates for the Torrance Council have accepted question and answer period invitations to speak at a public meeting sponsored by the Torrance League of Women Voters at 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 3. The meeting is scheduled at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd.

Eleven candidates have entered the race for the three council vacancies to be filled at the April 9 election. Candidates will be allowed equal time for statement of their position on issues. A question and answer period will follow. Mrs. William Birdsall, League voters service chairman, will serve as moderator.

The League of Women Voters is a non-partisan organization and does not endorse candidates. "By providing all candidates equal time to speak from the same platform, we feel that we are encouraging voters to make an informed choice," Mrs. James Van Op- pen, League president said.

Stands Up for YOU

COUNCILMANIC SALARIES SHOULD BE APPROVED BY THE PEOPLE

The question as to whether salaries should be raised for Torrance City Councilmen became a rather explosive issue this past year.

The arguments for a raise in salary are certainly worthy of consideration, but that is not the real issue. The issue is: Should councilmen have the right to raise their own salaries without a vote from the people? I say "no."

Other city employees can't raise their own salaries, so why should the mayor and council have that right. Councilmen are, after all, working for you, the people... and you should have the final word as to whether or not we deserve an increase in salary.

Thank you.
